

Come out to hear Professor Alison Bailey talk about traditional concepts and artistic and poetic representations of the Chinese garden.

Chinese tea and award-winning traditional Chinatown pastries will be served in the Hall of One Hundred Rivers prior to the presentation, and following the discussion, docents will lead groups for a guided tour of the Garden highlighting its architectural and horticultural elements.

FRIENDS of the
VANCOUVER CITY ARCHIVES

fovca.com

